

Innovation during the Global Crisis: You, Me, and “Us”

Saturday December 6th 2 pm to 6 pm

Adamian Graduate Center
Bentley University, Wilder Pavilion
175 Forest Street, Waltham, MA

Today, in a time of global upheaval with our fragile planet, the economic turmoil, and the divide between the rich and the poor, we have the opportunity to create new paradigms of thought and action.

Please join Boston Pledge and Bentley University for an afternoon of engaging dialogue to find the connection between you, me, and “us”.

Program

- Introduction
Beyond the Economic Crisis: Towards a New State of Consciousness?
Partha S. Ghosh, International Management Consultant
- The Challenges of Upward Mobility: Marvin Gilmore, Community Dev Corp
- Innovation Strategy in China: Peijun Duan, Central Party School of C.P.C.
- Finance Ethics, US & Beyond: Mark Williams, Boston University
- Getting the China Story Right: Yasheng Huang, MIT
- The Boston Pledge
- Conscious Capitalism: Raj Sisodia, Bentley University.
- Panel Discussion & Response:
Beyond Individualism: A Journey of Kindred Spirits
Jahangir Sultan, Bentley University
- Closing Statements
Imagining the next Geo Economic Order: Whose life is it anyway?
Partha S. Ghosh, International Management Consultant

Registration Details:

- Individual $35, Family $50, Student $10.
- Sign up details <https://www.123signup.com/calendar?Org=thebostonpledge>
- Childcare will be available for families.

Contact Details: Vijay Narang: vknarang@gmail.com

Empowering the Powerless

The Boston Pledge

Artist:
Esther Maschio

"Kindred" Series
© 2008

J.Luise Eberhardy
Wiv Inc
see: change: create

Dr. Malik & Assoc.
The Ocean Within You